

Suzan McEvoy began photographing scenery - from sweeping panoramas to the delicate inner beauty of wildflowers. Her eye for vivid colour, natural settings and details and a friend's baby started the transition into photographing families. With her sense of humour Suzan works to keep the shoot relaxed and natural. Her 30+ years' experience in customer service industries ensures she works with you to understand your family's needs. She looks forward to helping you make your portrait session memorable by capturing emotions, spontaneity and life one click at a time.
